Clem Garner Is Fatally Hurt In Hit-Run Accident

Funeral services were conducted here Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 9, for Clem Garner, RR 1, Momence, victim of a hit-and-run driver, who later surrendered himself to authorities.

The rites were held in the Canaday-Boos funeral chapel with the Rev. William Webber, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in Memorial Gardens at Kankakee.

Mr. Garner was fatally injured Sunday, just a day before he would have been 44. A native of Kentucky, he was married Aug. 8, 1935, at Glasgow, Ky., to Marie Green. He had served the last 19 years as foreman for the Irving Francis farms.

Survivors include: his widow; sons, David, 21, in the Navy and Daniel Jacob, 17; daughters, Mary Lou, 13, Louise Helna, 10, and Luella Frances, 6, all at home; brothers, Hurtis Lee Garner and Robert Taylor Garner, both of Kentucky, Tim Albert Garner of Momence, and Henry Elmore Garner of Roselawn, Ind.; and sisters, Mrs. Maude Blake of Bloomington, Ind., Mrs. Murin Coome, Mrs. Mary Ann Schader and Mrs. Junie Mae William of Kentucky, Mrs. Leona Belle of Garrison, Ky., and Mrs. Lucy Porter of Brown, Mo.

Mr. Garner was struck and killed by a car that did not stop at the scene of the accident about six miles east of Momence along Route 114 at 2:20 a. m. Sunday. Some two hours later, John Mital, 22, Schneider, Ind., and a companion, Paul S. Carpenter, 23, RR 1, Lake Village, Ind., were turned over to the Kankakee county sheriff's office after Mital has notified Indiana state police of the accident.

Mital said a car, apparently Garner's, was protruding slightly onto the highway and another car was coming from the opposite direction. He said Garner appeared on the pavement "like he came up out of the ground," the sheriff stated.

Coroner William Spillane said it is not known whether Garner was getting into or out of his car. He said Garner would have had to get onto the pavement to get in or out on the driver's side. Garner's death was Kankakee County's 17th this year, compared to 20 at the same time last year.

OBITUARY.

On Thursday morning occurred the sudden, and to most of his many friends, unexpected demise of Rev. J. H. Gose, pastor of the Lutheran church northeast of Grant Park, of erysipelas.

The deceased was born at Ohrdorf, Hanover, Germany, on January 29, 1852. He attended the village school from his 6th to his 14th year. Even before he was confirmed, he often expressed the wish that he might some day serve the Lord in the ministry. But on account of the great over-production of clergymen from the several universities in his native country, the prospects for him were not bright. However, at the age of 20, in the year 1872, he entered a preparatory school of Rev. Fr. Brunn, at Steeden, Saxony, Germany. Here he remained for two years. In 1874, he immigrated to this country and in Sept. of the same year entered Concordia College to conclude his studies for the ministry. A year later the practical department of the Seminary was moved to Springfield, this state, and young Gose departed for that place with his class. He was graduated from that institution in June 1877. On the 5th of Aug., after having accepted a call to Sturgis, Mich., he was ordained at Burr Oak, Mich. His first nine year in the ministry was spent in Mission work, which was not an easy task in those cold regions.

He was married in 1880 to Miss

Schieferdecker.

Early in September 1886, he accepted the call from the church near here, where he labored these 19 years, until Thursday morning, after a short illness, his Master, in whose vineyard he had labored so diligently, called him to rest. In his last hours he was surrounded by his family, some members of which, were summoned home by telegraph.

He attained the age of 53 years, 9 months and 10 days, and leaves his widow, three daughters and two sons to mourn his demise.

His only brother, formerly teacher of the Lutheran school at South Chicago, died about 7 months ago.

The funeral services occurred on Sunday, Nov. 12, beginning at 10:30 from the house, where Rev. Charles Brauer conducted the ceremonies.

The pall beares from the house to the church were six members of the Crete conference to which the deceased belonged, i. e. A. H. Brauer, Beecher; A. Wangerim, Sollitt; C. Keller, Thornton; Chas. Brauer, Eagle Lake, and H. Schulz, Steger.

PLAYED WITH LOADED GUN

Distressing Affair Happens at the Bailey Farm on Tuesday Af--ternoon

A most distressing accident occurred at Grant Park on Tuesday afternoon in which Harold, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Graefnitz, met death, the result of a gunshot wound accidentally inflicted by a boy about five years old.

During the afternoon Mrs. Graef nitz missed her oldest son, Adrian from home and with Harold and a younger child went to the home of Oscar Anderson in search of him It was learned that he and Mr. Anderson's son, Charles, about five years old, had gone to the Bailey grove to play. While around the Anderson barn the boys had found a shot gun used by Mr. Anderson to kill rats, and the young Anderson boy picked up a discarded cartridge and placed it in the gun.

At the Bailey farm the boys went into the barn and were playing with the gun. Swinging it around as in the act of shooting, the Anderson boy pulled the trigger and there was a loud report. Just at that moment Harold Graefnitz and a two year old sister of the Anderson boy stepped in front of the barn door. The full charge of shot entered the little fellow's stomach on the left side terribly mutilating the body and causing instant death. The little Anderson girl had hold of the boy's waist with her right hand and part of the shot tore off a part of her The mothers of the children hastened to the scene and were horrified at the sight that their gaze. Dr. Nielsen was summoned but his services were not needed as the boy was dead. Both families are heartbroken over the Coroner Cartier, of Kankakee, was notified of the death and held an inquest in the evening. On account of the tender age of the children it was difficult for him to get a coherent story of the details The jury returned a verdict that death was due to the gunshot wound acidentally inflicted. I will add here that Hardin Beebe father of Orson Beebe died on the river here, Dec 4th, 1839.

Of course the list is incomplete, for it is impossible for me to sit r down and recall all the deaths I could well remember if one would only call over the names. Then, , too, I have not mentioned the soldiers who perished in the war. To name them would require a whole article. I may give the list , some future day.

Due to the fact that Mr. Pearson will enter the Englewood hospital for another operation, Mrs. Pearson was unable to leave for the west to attend the funeral which was held Monday.

veteran who died seven years ago.

SISTER DIES IN WEST

Mrs. A. J. Pearson received word Friday of the death of her sister, Mrs. Agnes Greenock, which occurred in San Francisco, Cal.

Due to the fact that Mr. Pearson will enter the Englewood hospital for another operation, Mrs. Pearson was unable to leave for the west to attend the funeral which was held Monday.

Mrs. Greenock was laid to rest in the Presido National Cemetery at San Francisco beside her husband, a Spanish American war veteran who died seven years ago.

Mrs. Mary Greep died Saturday morning. She was 92 years old. He had been converted and joined the Methodist Church, March, 1881, when not quite ten years of age. He always spoke hopefully and pleasantly of his future life, and frequently sung: "We will rest in the fair and happy land,' just across on the evergreen shore."

For one so young the funeral audience was very large. The burial was in Union Corners cemetery. Rev. Geo. K. Hoover officiated, assisted by Rev. T. C. Youngs, Rev. James Campbell; and Mr. J. Clapsaddle, his Sunday School teacher, made some very feeling and appropriate remarks.

Arthur J. Gregg was born April 12th, 1871, and died at the family residence in Grant Park, Illinois, June 7, 1883.

"Artie," as he was familiarly called, was a boy of much promise and though buoyant and bright was thoughtful and guarded for one so young. The disease which called him away was at first rheumatism which at last effected the heart, causing its enlargement. From this cause he had been in feeble health for about one year, during the latter part of which he was a great sufferer, but all who saw him spoke of his wonderful patience. He himself had wished, during the several paroxisms, that the Lord would shorten his sufferings, but yet added, "If it is His will, all right I am willing to stay longer."

Mrs. Beatrice Hall Taken By Death

Mrs. Beatrice Hall of Harvey, mother of Mrs. Ted Johnson of this city, passed away at St. Mary hospital at six o'clock Friday morning. She had been taken there from the Johnson home two weeks previously and had been in a serious condition during all that time.

The remains were brought to the Ruge chapel here and taken from there on Sunday to Danville where funeral services were held at the Danville funeral home chapel at two o'clock Monday afternoon. The services were conducted by the Rev. C. A. Garst and burial was in Oak Ridge cemetery at Catlin.

Mrs. Hall was born in Lucas, Iowa, on Jan. 3, 1890, the daughter of Martin and Arminda Boyd Carter. She moved to Danville in her childhood and resided there until her marriage to David E. Hall in 1905. He preceded her in death two years ago. After residing in Momence for about ten years, she moved to Harvey which has since been her home. She had been in failing health for about five years but was critically ill for only a few weeks.

Surviving in addition to Mrs.

Johnson, is another daughter Mrs. Mabel Krisch of Chicago and four grandchildren. There are also a sister, Mrs. O. Hall, and two brothers, Elmer and Owen Carter, all of Danville. A daughter Pam-

A son of Robt. Hall, Esq., of Sumner, accidentally shot himself in the left breast and died immediately. It seems the young man aged 16 years, had a revolver, a good one, and, as the story goes, he either traded it or lost it in some way, and feeling bad over it an old one was left him in its stead. He went out to the corncrib and the revolver being loaded, he snapped it and none of the chambers were discharged. He probably held it towards him and was using a file on it to get the rust off, when the revolver, being half cocked, was accidentally discharged, the ball entertering the nipple of the left breast. He calleed to his sister, ten years old, who ran to him, when he exclaimed: "Oh! I believe I'm shot; unbutton my clothes," and started to walk to the house, saying, "Go for father." When a few steps were taken, he reeled and fell against the gate and died.

DEATH OF MRS. HALL-

Our community was startled last Monday by the sudden death of Cora Hall, wife of H. B. Hall, Jr., and daughter of H. Worcester, which occurred at about half past eight that morning. Mrs. Hall had been in quite poor health for a year past and at one time her life was despaired of. But for the past few months, she had been slowly but visibly gaining and her friends were rejoicing in the prospect of her complete restoration to health. But on Monday morning after her husband and her father had come down town, while her mother was assisting her to dress, she was seized with a sudden hemorrhage of the lungs and died without a struggle before her mother could summon any aid.

She was born in Momence Feb. 6, 1861, and was married Oct. 4, 1882. She leaves one child, an infant daughter, too young to realize her great loss.

The time of the funeral has not yet been determined as we go to press delay being caused by waiting for absent friends.

Pioneer Citizen and Successful Business Man Passes Away.

H. B. Hall, President of the Momence State and Savings Bank, died very suddenly on Tuesday morning, March 27, 1906, at 6 o'clock. He had not been in his usual health for some weeks, but was not considered to be in danger, being able to be up and attend to the usual duties of a retired business man and banker. His death produced a deep feeling of sadness in the hearts of all our people who have known him during a long and honorable career. He was getting up in years, but his eye was bright, his form was erect and his step quick and elastic. The immediate cause of his death was heart disease.

Hilton B. Hall was born at Fort Edward, in Washington County, N. Y., Jan. 23, 1833. He was a son of Henry M. and Elizabeth (Wilbur) Hall, being of English descent. He was born and reared on a farm doing the work of the farmer's son. He attended the district schools of New York and finished his education at Argyle Academy, N. Y. Being a member of a family of seventeen children, he was early thrown on his own resources, and came west, landing in Momence in 1851. This has since been his home. For forty-five years he has witnessed the events that have taken place here, and has always been a factor in the town.

After coming to Momence he spent two years at Bourbonnais, where he clerked for his brother, Henry. He then returned to Momence, and entered the employ of W. H. Patterson, the man who conducted the most extensive business in this part of the county in that day. Here he learned business methods and laid the foundation for future success. He remained with Patterson for eight years and when Mr. Patterson died, Mr. Hall and a son of Mr. Patterson, then conducted the business for a few years under the firm name of Hall & Patterson, but Patterson died and then Mr. Hall conducted it alone for twelve years. He then sold out and bought a large farm in Yellowhead, and has since lived a retired merchant. He had a splendid home in this city and took special delight in making it pleasant and the surroundings beautiful.

Mr. Hall was united in marriage to Miss Mary E. Veatch, July 24, 1877, and she is left to mourn his loss. She has the sympathy of all in this sudden bereavement.

The prominent part which the deceased has had in the affairs of the city will not soon be forgotten, and the community has certainly been made better by his living here. He will be missed by all who knew him.

The funeral will be held at the home at 2:30 this afteonoon.

Death of H. B. Hall, Jr.

The checker fraternity everywhere, and particularly the members of the Chicago Chess and Checker Club, will be pained to learn of the death of H. B. Hall, Jr., which occurred at the Baptist Hospital in Chicago on the 12th of this month.

Mr. Hall entered the hospital on Sunday, the 7th, and submitted to an operation on the Wednesday following, from which he died in two days thereafter. He had arranged his business—that of banking—at his home in Momence, Ill., so that he could enter the hospital, without an apparent thought of a fatal result.

Mr. Hall was a widower, his wife having died several years ago, leaving a most charming little daughter, on whom his affections were centered. This girl will miss a fond and loving father, and has the heartfelt sympathy of every one.

Mr. Hall was a gentleman always, with a genial disposition, and therefore had many friends. The coming of no visitor to our club was more earnestly looked for or received a more hearty welcome, not only because of his gentlemanly conduct and winning ways, but because of his marked ability as a checker player, which was everywhere recognized.

The history of the game of checkers and its progress could not be written without the name of H. B. Hall, Jr. appearing many times.

The writer feels deeply the loss of Mr. Hall, having frequently enjoyed his society and having been the recipient of his hospitality at his beautiful home in Momence.

Problem No. 589.

Who hath passed from our sight, Whose presence still lingers a halo of light. A light reaching far, from shore unto shore, A union unsevered in the sweet evermore.

'Tis idle to talk of the future; And rare might have been our tears, God knows all about it, yet took her, Away from the on coming years.

God knew all about it, how noble, How gentle she was and how brave, How brilliant her possible future, Yet put her to sleep in the grave.

God knew all about those who loved her, How bitter their trials must be; And right through it all he is loving And knows so much better than we.

So in the deep darkness, we're trusting, One day we shall say it was well. God took from her young brow earth's laurels. And crowned her with death's immortelles.

AT REST.

Ella Carina Hanson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanson, was born Oct. 19 1879, in Momence, Ill., and died Jan. 31, 1904, at Wesley Hospital, Chicago, Ill.

The first 16 years of her life were spent at home with her parents, to whom she endeared herself by her sweet spirit and loving obedience to their every wish.

Soon after entering the High School she was compelled, on account of ill health, to give up the work and turn her attention to some other pursuit.

At 12 years of age she became a member of the Momence M. E. church. From a child her heart had yearned to relieve any who were afflicted, and being attracted to that work, she entered the deaconess work in connection with the Light and Hope Missionary Society, with which she was connected for four years. In September 1901, she entered the

Most of the last three years was spent at Wesley Hospital where, surrounded by relatives and loving friends, she passed to her reward in the triumph of christian faith.

In the loving service she rendered here for two orphan children, is found one of memory's richest gems.

Children and unfortunates found in her a friend with large sympathy and larger helpfulness.

Once she brought a helpless cripple, and during her vacation, gave herself to the care of her helpless friend, and her plans were made to do the same service the coming summer for the same incur-When here for the holidays, she was looking forward to March, when she would finish her training and graduate, and then take a long needed rest at home before taking up the life of service she had chosen. Ada Lucile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hardy, was born in this city Aug. 7, 1903, and died June 4, 1910, at noon. Her death was the result of a severe attack of pneumonia, which she was not able to endure. About two years ago Lucile had a severe case of whooping cough, which left her in a serious condition, but with the greatest care and medical aid she had so far recovered from the effects of the disease that her parents and friends had great hopes of her complete recovery, but the all wise Father saw fit to call her from this world of pain and sorrow, and her beautiful spirit took its fight to the celestial realms and is now resting in the arms of the blessed Master who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of many hearts in this city, for she was well known and loved by everyone who knew her. Her long illness had caused many to become interested in her, inquiries concerning her welfare were made on every hand and the people rejoiced with the parents when told that she was improving, but when the announcement of her death was given out, the rejoicings were turned into deepest become so common lately, that we baisy Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hardy, was drowned in the Kankakee river, on Friday, Aug. 27, about three and one-half miles down the stream from Momence. The circumstances which led to her death are about as follows: Miss Daisy was invited to accompany a party of young girls of her own age to the camp of Mr. Walter A. Brown. On Wednesday she accompanied Misses Lucy Brown, Hazel McConnell and Bernice Astle to the camp where they were to remain two or three days. She left her home with a light heart in anticipation of a splendid camping trip, her only anxiety being for Mr. Hardy, who had been ill for a day or two, but advising him to be careful and get well ere she returned, she left her home in a very joyful manner to go into camp. The young ladies had a fine time Wednesday and Thursday, and on Friday planned to go bathing, accompanied by Mr. Walter

A. Brown, his son Oswald, and Lawrence H Burch, son of Mr. W. Burch. The girls t splashed around in the water near a sand bar and had a delightful time, and t Mr. Brown had the two boys with him n in the boat when Miss Hardy called l. that she had found a fine clam and e started to put it in the boat. She came . suddenly to a step-off and went down, 11 and came up struggling and strangling. y She came up five times, and the third l. time Mr. Brown had brought the boat 8 in such a position that he placed the e oar in her hand, but she could not hold f to it and sank again. With the con-Н fusion that followed and anxiety for t the safety of the other children, Mr. , Brown failed to bring his boat in position so he could reach her, and the oars came out of the locks, causing delay, until it was too late to save her life, and she sank to rise no more. The water was not very deep where she was drowned but very swift and farther on was much deeper. When the news came to town about e 3:30 that Daisy Hardy had been drowned, many men turned out to look for the body, and the river was thoroughly searched with no success. A wire fence was quickly placed across the river to keep her from floating away, and dynamite exploded with the hope of raising the body. All night long, all day Saturday and Saturday night, strong, brave fellows patroled the river and dived into every deep place, seeking for the body with no success, although each one deserves the highest measure of praise for his heroic efforts. Body Found. The body was found Sunday morning by Arthur Reeves and Victor Marcotte, two young men who were living in a camp about five miles down the river. They knew every current and sand bar in the river, and decided where she was likely to lodge and on Sunday morning proved their judgment to be correct, for she was found floating in shallow water on the sand bar near their cabin, having floated about one and one-half miles.

The young men at once took the í body from the water, and wrapped it 1 in blankets and notified Charles Sells t who telephoned to Momence of the dis-0 covery. Riley sent out a team and J the remains were brought to the un-2 dertaking establishment of Melby & P Halpin, where it was cared for before n being taken home. h Inquest Held. V Deputy Coroner Rudolph Nichols li came over Sunday morning and empannelled a jury consisting of R. L. Edwards, John Shortridge, p В. Н. , W Hertz, W. J. Riley, O. M. Harlan, • S Walter Howery, clerk. The facts were so well known that 1 t the inquest was only necessary to ful-1 fill the law, and only a few witnesses ì were examined. Mr. James E. Hardy ŗ testified as to her age, and the facts D t about her life and how she went out to 1 camp. Walter A. Brown told of the a 1 circumstances of drowning, and Arthur e Reeves, who first found the body, told tl of the finding. The verdict was that of a accidental drowning according to the e 8 facts above. e k The Funeral. h is The body was taken to her late home S a and an opportunity given to view the V g remains from 10 o'clock to 12 m. Monf k day. At two o'clock the funeral was y held at the First Baptist church, con-, ducted by the pastor, Rev. Robert Wood, assisted by Rev. C. G. Shaffer, 0 n of the M. E. church. The music was e furnished by a quartet composed of a Misses Zoa Coyle and Eva Lilly, and y Messrs. Gaylord Hess and Cecil Sher-11 B wood. Never before was there a more a 0 sympathetic audience present, and the f 1church was filled to overflowing. Busiıl n ness in the city ceased during the a g services, and the Tiffany Enameled d W Brick Factory shut down for the after-0 0 noon in respect and in sympathy with er W the family. e p Pall Bearers. ls is The young friends of the deceased a f d acted as pall bearers. They were:

Milan Astle, Earl Brown, Bert Willis,
Lawrence McConnell, Edwart Kurtz,
Howard Walker. The honorary pall bearers were: Bernice Astle, Lucy
Brown, Mabel Clapsadle, Lucy Cromwell, Hazel McConnell and Levonia Walker.

The flowers were very beautiful and very nicely arranged.

The prayer by Rev. Shaffer and sermon by Rev. Wood were full of sympathy. Rev. Wood gave the following tribute:

"Miss Daisy Hardy was one of our noblest young girls, thoughtful, bright, genial and faithful. There was no one among all of our younger people who stood higher in the esteem of our people than she did.

"She was a beautiful Christian girl, a power among the Juniors, and was one upon whom the leader could always depend. She was at her place in young people's meetings and prayer meeting, whether other young people were there or not.

"Some evenings since she went up stairs to her room, and was quite a while getting ready for bed. In the morning her mother asked what made her so long, and her reply was: "Why, mama, I had to braid my hair and read my chapter in the bible, and pray." She lived in calm and grip of eternal blessings. She has been sheltered in a Christian home, and responded to all good influences, and the community has felt the deep impress of her life. Two former pastors have written beautiful tributes to her young life, and a score of others have also done so. It pays to live such a life, fitted for the service in the other world."

Daisy Hardy was born in Chicago June 22, 1894, and her age was 15 years, 2 months and 5 days. The greater part of her life was spent here in Momence, as Mr. and Mrs. Hardy brought her here when she was but a few weeks old. She has attended the public schools and was a good student. She has been a great comfort to her parents who are now almost overcome with grief, but they have the deepest sympathy of all.

Burial took place at Momence ceme-

terrupted by the war, he became interested in flying and in 1946 was granted his private pilot's li-

Ralph B. Hardy Dies In Chicago Hospital After A Short Illness

Ralph Bernard Hardy, 67, resident of Momence since 1893, died Thursday, Nov. 20, at Billings Memorial hospital in Chicago, where he had gone for treatment a short time before. Mr. Hardy was born Nov. 24, 1873, in England the youngest of fourteen children of Isaac and Mary Hardy. In the year 1899 he was united in marriage to Miss Cecilia Elliott in the Meth-odist church here.

He was employed by the Tiffany Enamel Brick Co., from the time he first arrived in this country until 1933, a period of forty years. Since his resignation there, he has handled several lines of insurance and at the time of death was justice of the peace in Ganeer township. A musician, Mr. Hardy served as organist for the Methodist church for many years and also acted in that capacity in other churches about town. He is survived by the widow and three daughters, Mrs. Alice Hungerford, Mrs. Gladys Hertz of Louisville, Ky., and Irene at home. Other survivors are two grandchildren, one sister in England, and a brother Isaac of this land, and a brother, Isaac, of this place, and several nieces and nephews.

with Rev. W. W. Wohlfarth, officiating. Interment was made in Momence cemetery. Pallbearers were: Marcel Hall, Earl Clark, Harry Heninger, Emory Sorenson, Lester Burns and Elmer Stearman.

FORMER MOMENCE GIRL DEAD The following item taken from the Daily Tidings of Ashland, Oregon, will be of interest to many in this city. Mrs. Harkins was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ruger, a former well known young man of this city. She was born in Momence, where she lived for several years, when she moved to Ashland with her parents. Mrs. Pearl Ruger Harkins of Medford, for many years a resident of Ashland, and well known as a former Ashland girl, died at her home in Medford yesterday ev-

Mrs. Harkins was known to hundreds of Ashland people. She was a graduate of the Ashland High School, and was a popular member of the younger set in this city. She numbered among her friends hundreds of local people who will mourn her passing.

The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ruger of this city. She was born in Illinois, and at the time of her death was 23 years, 11 months and 29 days of age.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Episcopal church, Rev. P. K. Hammond, officiating. Interment will be in Mountain View cemetery." They prospered on the farm, but her husband sought political honors, being elected to a county office, but friends proved false and reverses came when he lost more than he had gained.

In 1880 the family came to Illinois, and resided one year near Hopkins Park, then moved to a farm southwest of this city. They again prospered, but after raising a good crop and storing it in the barn, it was destroyed by fire.

In 1887 the father having endured many hardships, became ill and died. Then the mother's trials were heavier, but she never failed in a single duty to her family. She was always cheerful and loving and brought up her family in the way they should go. And she was repaid by seeing them all grow up to become useful men and women, respected wherever they are known. They have not all become wealthy, but Ira W., with whom she made her home at Piggott, has been exceptionally successful. In 1897 she moved to Kankakee, but in 1902 went to Piggott, where she died.

In early life she and her husband joined the Baptist Church and were always faithful to that Church, but attended the M. E. Church when not convenient to the Baptist Church.

The remains arrived here Sunday morning and the funeral was held at the residence of her son, Editor O. M. Harlan, conducted by Rev. T. S. Pittenger, of the M. E. Church, who gave a brief history of her life, and spoke very feelingly of her noble life.

The burial took place by the side of her husband at the beautiful Mt. Airy cemetery.

MAJ. HARRINGTON AT REST

Major G. C. Harrington

Maj. George C. Harrington, whose f life has been so closely linked with the earlier events in Watseka that n his biography is almost a history of a this city, died Saturday evening Sept. b 3, 1910 at 5:40 o'clock at his summer t cottage on Mackinac Island. He had k gone there early in August to spend h the rest of the summer, accompanied c by Mrs. Harrington and his nurse, b Miss Kinney. News of his death came Sunday p morning to several of his friends in p K Watseka, and to the officers of the s First National Bank, with whom he'1 d has been associated in business since o soon after the Civil war. N fi fe Born in New York. h George C. Harrington was born in fo St. Lawrence county, New York, June 30, 1833, the son of Benjamin O. and Harriet E. Harrington, both SI natives of Vermont. He felt that his services were then needed in the great Civil war and f abandoned his editorial duties. He began recruiting volunteers and after taking a company into camp at Kankakee for the 76th Illinois regiment he assisted in filling up two more l'companies for the 113th.

He enlisted as a private soldier but was soon elected captain of Company A. in January 1863 he was promoted to be major but did not serve long after this. MRS. NELLIE HARRINGTON

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Nellie Harrington was born on the farm north of Momence April 4th, 1869. Was united in marriage with Truman W. Harrington July 14, 1904. Passed away on Feb. 24, 1905.

Thus the story of a life is told-but that is not all.

The funeral services at the Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon were a loving tribute in flowers and words to a life of loving, helpful, service rendered to her loved ones in the home. From a child she seemed to know instinctively the protecting care of the Heavenly Father, and knowing this it was natural for her to care for others. Her education was secured in the district school, Momence Schools and in the Seminary at Onarga, Ill. After her school days she took up the home duties, lifting the burden of mother and with a selfsacrificing love, devoting herself to the last days of her father. Meanwhile her two younger brothers were growing to manhood. Only eternity will reveal the value of the service rendered in the bringing the boys to clean, strong manhood.

While her life was a constant sunshine to cheer, it was also a dynamic force lifting others up to her calm taith in a loving God.

As a companion she was joyful, helpful and ever seeking to make her friends happy. As a wife, the tender message of love to her husband, written when she tho't to see him no more, shows a heart of unbounded, unselfish, love. Such words of cheer as they were!—Happy that one who may cherish such memories.

Nine weeks of constant pain did not rob her of patience, nor joy, nor faith. For when hope seemed faint she said the word was very precious where it said "Let the peace of God rule "full" in your heart and be ye thankful." The hearts emotion of a confident child of God led her to put in the word 'full' to express her trust in the Heavenly Father. Such a life is worth living, and such a death worth dying, for it has the vision of victory. She was ready for the mansion prepared for her and leaves the benediction of triumphant faith.

"For all our sorrows, for all our woes There is no comfort like this—God knows.

There is no comfort like this—God knows God gives and the days are so sunny and bright,

And God takes away, sweetheart, but the night

Of our sorrow is brief, there will come a sweet morn When out of our sadness a new joy is born. God knows, 'tis his angels that hold in

The graves where our dearest and sweetest lie sleeping."

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks and sincere gratitude to the dear friends for their sympathy and many kindnesses shown us in our late bereavement.

Boy Drowns In Fall Into River Monday Morning

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at Carbondale, Ill., for a 2-year-old Momence boy, who drowned in the Kankakee river after he had fallen in Monday morning from Prairie's Island where his family was residing.

The body of Danny Lee Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harris, was recovered a few minutes before noon along the south bank of the river, about a mile west of the bridge, after two youthful fishermen, George Keller, 16, and his brother, Edward, 11, saw it floating downstream.

The two boys, who reside at 28 Hill street, immediately contacted authorities. Deputy Coroner Bernard Boos and Police Officer William Dobberphul were unable to revive the little boy after 45 minutes use of an inhalator.

The mother told authorities she had missed the boy while he was at play and had been searching for him for nearly an hour. The father could not be contacted immediately because he was out of town looking for a home for a move the family is planning to make in the near future.

The drowning was the eighth of the year for Kankakee county. Four of them occured in pairs two days apart the middle of this month.

MELVYN HART, SOPHOMORE M.C.H.S. KILLED; 4 HURT IN TRAFFIC ACCIDENT

Tragedy trailed a carload of six high school students who started Wednesday evening from Momence for the basketball game in Kankakee, and overtook them at the foot of Baker's Hill when their car collided with one coming from Kankakee, resulting in the instant death of Melvyn Hart and the serious injury of three others.

The east bound car was driven by Ralph Ordon of Morocco, Ind., and the Momence car, by Russell Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, who had borrowed the auto from his brother Robert, a returned service man.

In the collision, the fatally injured youth was probably thrown from the car, as his death was due to a skull fracture. JoAnne Holger, daughter of Mr. and Walter Holger, is the most ously injured, she having suffered fractures of both legs, an arm and her skull. Yvonne Prairie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Prairie has a broken leg, Russell Johnson, a dislocation of his hip, and Betty Lou Mathias, a hand injury. Robert Glow, the other occupant of the car, escaped with minor bruses. The driver of the Morocco car was also seriously injured.

Following the accident which occurred about seven oclock, the cars burst into flames and it was with difficulty that the injured were taken from the wreckage by other students who were following, and Deputy Ray VanDiepen who was passing. The victims were taken to St. Mary hospital.

Held At St. Patrick's For Alice Hasle!t

I AIICIAI DEI AICEZ

Funeral services were held Friday, Nov. 11, at 10 a. m. at St.

Patrick's church for Miss Alice Haslett, who died Nov. 8, in the Campbell Nursing Home at Aroma Park. A life-long Kankakee country resident, she had formerly lived in Momence.

Miss Haslett was born Feb. 28, 1862, in Kankakee county, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Haslett. Only survivors are several nieces and nephews.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. HASLETT

Mrs. Catharine Haslett, wife of Mr.
Levi Haslett, died at her home in this city, Wednesday morning, August 2, 1893.

city, Wednesday morning, August 2, 1893. She had been in feeble health for several weeks, her condition being considered quite serious, though not of such a nature as to warrant for family in the apprehension of immediate danger. She was about the house more or less as inclination prompted, and on Wednesday morning was out in the back yard when she suddenly became prostrated with what is supposed to have been heart trouble, the attack rendering her unconscious. She was found a few moments later by her daughter, Mrs. Brady, and immediately carried to the house and medical aid summoned, but life departed almost instantly.

Mrs. Haslett an allow of May arine Medicath, a native of May Ireland, born in the year 1831. She continued to the land of the until the year 1850, when with her landy she came to this country, first locating

Four years subsequently she was unned in marriage with Mr. Levi Haslett, who soon after came to Kankakee county and purchased a farm near this city, known as the Haslett homestead, and is still owned by him. Here they resided and shared life's burdens and blessing together until about sixteen years ago, when they removed to their present comfortable home in this city. This home made sacred so many years by the tender associations of a wife's care and a mother's love, is now plunged in sorrow, bereft of its chief attraction, and shorn of that incentive spirit that promotes handless and regales the family the remathe fullness of its to them. Her life in this community, reaching back for nearly had eentury, entitles her to a rank with the early pioneers of eastern Illinois, and it is to such characters as hel's that we are indebted for much of this world's steadiastness to the principles of morality, and the energy that bedets thrift and prosperity. She was a woman of wide acquaintance, of true womanly instincts, and of great devotion to her family. While there are many outside of the home circle and close acdiaintances who will regard her death as the loss of a friend, the blow falls heavlest on those who were allied to her the closest. Almost providential it would seem, was the visit paid her on the evening before she died, by her only brother Mr. John McGrath, a wealthy and influential business man of Chicago. He came to offer encouragement, and council with the family relative to some means of restoring the sufferer to health and strength, but had hardly returned to the city when he received notice of her death. She leaves a husband, and three children, Mrs. Brady, Affice and William Mr. McGrath and Mrs. Miller of Chicago, are respectively, the only brother and sister. She was also related to Mr. Austin Canovan, Mrs. W. W. Parish, Mr. J. J. Kirby and Mrs. P. J. Gleary.

The inneral was held at 10:30 this morning ar the Catholic church in this city, of which the deceased was a mem ber. Requiem services, Thich were very impressive, were conducted by Rey. Father Kertson assisted by Rev. Father Berard of St. Anne. Prof. Gibeault presided at the organ, assisted by a full choir. James Haipin and Patrick Fitz. gerald acted as ushers, and Christopher! Halply, Martin Hughes, William Cleary, John Halpin and James Narey were pati thearers. Interment was made in the Catholic cemeters in this cite.

The floral tributes were abundant and beautiful, among which was a profusion of lifes and other rare flowers jurnised through a Chicago florist. There were also choice tributes supplied by friends of the family in this community.

Obituary.

Mr. Charles Haslett died at his home in Frankfort, Kansas, on Wednesday, [anuary 15, 1902, of kidney trouble.

January 15, 1902, of kidney trouble. Deceased was the brother of Levi Haslett of this city. He was born in Berry, Vermont, July, 22, 1832, went to Lawrence, N. Y., in July 1844, where he lived until July, 1847, when he came to Kankakee county. He remained here from that date until 1854, and will still be remembered by our readers who lived here at that time, In 1857 he went to Iowa, where in February 1850 he was married to Miss Esther Lakin, and in the same year moved to Frankfort, Kansas. Here in the fall of 1861 he enlisted in the 8th Kansas Infantry. He was a soldier until eighteen months before the close of the war when he was taken prisoner at the battle of Chickamangua. His wife died in 1862 while he was in the service. After being captured he was taken to the notorious prison pen of Andersonville, where he suffered all the horrors of that historical dungeon for 18 months, coming home only when released by the close of the war in 1865, in an almost starved condition and a physical wreck from the privations and suffering he had endured. He wrote a book entitled, 'Our Life in Andersonville," giving a vivid account of the sufferings of himself and comrades during that terrible ordeal which was read with much interest. Returning to his home in Kansas, he was married a second time to Miss Melissa Randall in Nov. 1865, to whom four children have been born. The wite and children survive him. Since his return he has remained a resident of Frankfort until death. Thus has closed an eventful life. Mr. Haslett was one of a large family, all well known here in past years. William, Henry and George Haslett have all gone before. Levi Haslett of this city is the only male member of the family left. Three sisters are still living, namely, Mrs. Elmira Storrs, in Illinois, and Mrs. Mary Huntley and Mrs. Caroline Sergeant in western states.

The subject of this sketch was a man of education and more than ordinary intelligence. His life was one of energy and extensive experience and with the exception of the time spent in the war was spent as a farmer. He was buried at his home in Frankfort.

ANOTHER PIONEER IS CALLED HOME

Levi Haslett, Sr., Dies at His Home on Sunday Night.

CAME TO MOMENCE IN 1848

Was Prominent In Public Affairs
For Many Years and Held
Many Positions of Trust.

In the death of Levi Haslett Momence loses another of its honored pioneers. For nearly seventy years Mr. Haslett had been a resident of this county, a greater share of which time he has lived in this city. During his long residence here he has been prominent in public affairs, and was many times honored by the voters and given places of trust and responsibility. He came from sturdy. New England stock, and he always adhered to the principles of honesty, fairness and uprightness, which gained for him the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. His prominence in public affairs acquired for him a large acquaintance, and no man will be more sadly missed or remembered with more kindly feeling than will Mr. Haslett.

He was born in Berry, Vermont, on August 25, 1833. When but a small boy he moved with his parents to St. Lawrence county, New York. In 1848 he came with his parents to Ganeer township, where he lived almost continually. His father purchased the farm northwest of this city, and here Mr. Haslett grew to manhood. He attended the district school and took an active part in the doings of the younger set of his day. On July 4, 1855, he was married to Miss Catherine McGrath, and moved onto a farm near Manteno. He remained there for a few years when he rented a farm near Exline. After the death of his father, Mr. Haslett purchased the old home farm and here he remained until about forty years ago, when he moved to this city. He built the excellent home in which he has lived for over thirty years. On moving to this city he opened a meat market which he conducted for several years, but sold out in order to give his attention to his farm, which he never sold. He at once took an active part in the affairs of the vill-For many years he was a member of the village board, and had much to do with the early development of Momence. Mr. Hasiett was decidedly a home man, and while he was ready to give his time to public affairs, his first consideration was for those to whom he was bound by family ties. While he never became affiliated with any chuch, he lived a christian life in the true sense of the name. He was ever ready to lend a helping hand to the needy, and many have cause to remember him kindly.

The funeral was held from his late home on Tuesday afternoon and was largly attended. His six grandsons

MRS. HASNEY AT REST

Bosaleas Sego was born in St. Johns, Canada, in the Province of Quebec, April 14, 1830, and died at the home of her daughter, Josephine Hasney, June 23, 1910, at 12:15 p. m., aged 80 years, 2 months, and 9 days. She grew up in her native land, and remained there until 1846, when she moved with her parents to Rochester, N. Y. Later they came to Illinois, and settled near Wilmington and Lockport. Her father was a contractor, and helped put in the reservoir for the water works system in New York city in 1846.

She was married in 1849 to Michael Hasney, at Joliet, Ill. They lived together happily until 1876, when he died. They had a family of ten children, seven of whom are still living: Mrs. Florence Wells, of Mayflower, Ark.; John and Josephine Hasney, Momence; Mrs. C. R. Frederick, and Charles J. Hasney, Chicago; W. A. Hasney, of Highwood, Ill.; Mrs. Robert Cromwell, of Villa Grove, Ill.

The relatives have the sympathy of all Momence people who have known this aged mother through all these years, she has resided here. Many flowers and tokens of friendship were sent by friends of the family, but none were more appreciated than the beautiful piece, "the gates ajar," that was sent by a delegation of railroad men, led by Mr. W. J. Haney, and brought to the home last Friday. This very beautiful design was contributed by the railroad men in the offices where Charles Hasney is employed.

The funeral was held at St. Patrick's church last Saturday at 10:30 a.m., conducted by Rev. Father A. L. Labrie, and attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Burial took plae at St. Patrick's cemetery.

Those from out of town who camed to attend the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Powell, Mrs. Mary Dennison, Misses Ida and Tillie Dennison, Mr. and Mrs Cortiss, Kankakee; Mrs. C. R. Frederisk, and Charles J. Hasney and family, of Chicago; W. A. Hasney, and family, of Highwood, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cromwell, of Villa Grove.

The pall bearers were: Eugene Gibeault, J. D. Laplant, P. J. Cleary, F. V. Sweet, James Nary, Joe Hubert.

The deceased was a member of the Catholic church all her life and in the four years that she was an invalid, found much comfort in her religion, often saying, "I am never alone, for Christ is with me." She was always cheerful and patient through all her suffering. Her life was one of sweet charity, and many will rise up and call her blessed. When the bridegroom came she was found with her lamp trimmed and burning, and ready to enter the mansions prepared for her.

Mrs. Hasney was loyed and cared for by all her children through her illness, but the burden borne by Miss Josephine, who cared for her mother so long, was the greatest. Too much praise cannot be given such a faithful daughter.

AT REST.

Mrs. Mary B. Hasney died at the home of her daughter, Miss Josephine Hasney, on the South Side, at 12:15, Thursday, after an illness extending through many months. She was past 80 years old, and her last days were passed in peace at the home of her daughter. We shall give more details of her life next week. The funeral will be held at St. Patricks church, Saturday at 10:00 o'clock.

INMEMORY

IN MEMORIAM In memory of PHYLLIS HATCH who passed away August 30, 2013

I often sit and think about the years that have passed by, and of the happiness and joy that was shared by you and I. I think of all the laughter, the smiles and all the fun. And before I even know it, my tears have once again begun. For although it brings me comfort to walk down memory lane, it reminds me how without you, life has never been the same.

You are missed so very much.

YELLOWHEAD ITEMS-

June 30-Died in West Creek township June 23 of gangrenous affection of the foot, Mr. Bethuel Hathaway, aged 71 years. Last winter Mr. Hathaway froze his little toe which caused it to turn a dark color, and being very painful, he had the dark flesh taken off, but it continued to spread and the whole toe was taken off. It still spread over the whole foot which was taken off just above the ankle and he lived but a short time afterward. Mr. Hathaway was a pioneer in this country and an exemplary man in every respect.

A dispatch from California to Nelson Seager's wife of Sumner, last week, brought the news of the death of Charles II. Hathaway, who had gone to that state for his health. Mr. Hathaway's disease was consumption, and he was too far gone to be benefited by a change of climate.

Mr. Hathaway's first wife was Amelia, daughter of W. F. Dennis, Esq., of Sumner. Three children, Esther, aged 15. Frank, aged 8, and Junia, aged 5, the fruits of the first marriage, are living. After the death of the first wife Mr. H. married a daughter of Rev. Smith, who is now Bible agent, and she resides at Remington, Ind., Mr. Hathaway was a brother of Mrs. Nelson Seager.

Died, at her home in Grant Park, on Friday, Aug. 21, 1903. After a lingering illness, Miss Emeline Hathaway, aged 69 years.

Miss Hathaway was a native of the state of New York, but had lived the greater part of her life in Yellowhead township; the past ten years in the village of Grant Park. She was the daughter of "Uucle Paul" Hathaway, one of the respected pioneers of Yellowhead, who died at his home two and one-half miles east of Grant, Jan. 14, 1883, at the advanced age of ninety-five years.

She was also a sister of Mrs. M. Seager, Mrs. M. Cornell and Wm. Hathaway, all of this place, and others living in other localities, constituting a family of ten children, five of whom are living.

Deceased was a faithful member of the M. E. church, of the W. C. T. U., and other church organizations, in all of which she was a hard worker and ardent supporter at all times. She was also a true friend and neighbor and will be sadly missed from her accustomed place

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church at Grant Park, on Monday at 11 o'clock. Her former pastor, B. F. Eckley, officiated and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Union Corners, where many relatives had been laid before.

DEATH OF FRED HATHAWAY

The de-t ceased was brought up in Momence, I and was about 28 years old. He had been in Nebraska for several years, and was a farmer, living with his mother on a farm near Verdel, Neb. He was a popular young man and had many friends both in Momence, and in his western home.

Died, in Lake County, Ind., June 16 of typhoid fever, Mrs. Lucinda Hathaway, aged about 61 years. The deceased whose maiden name was Lucinda Hayden, was the third child of Nehemiah Hayden and was twice married. Her first husband was Walter Cleaver by whom she had three sons, and her second, Bethuel Hathaway by whom she had two sons and one daughter. Her husband now lies in a very critical condition with but little hopes of his recovery.

Paul Hathaway, the oldest person in the town of Yellowhead, and, so far as we know, in the County of Kankakee, died at his home in the town of Yellowhead, Sunday, January 14, 1883. He was born in New Bedford October 6, 1788. When about twelve years old, with the family he moved to Greene County, N. Y., but soon returned to Connecticut and learned the trade of clothier. With the family, he afterward moved to Ulster County, N. Y., where, May 20, 1818, he was married to Miss Melissa Landon. He lived here for about twenty years. His first wife died in the early part of 1836, and he was again married June 10, 1837. In 1838, he with his own family moved west and located in Yellowhead, near where he ever continued to live till the time of his death. His mother and other relatives came to the same section a few years later. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in early life, and lived so that the church was honored by his life. Until he came West, he was a class leader, and since West he held official relations to the church. He had also been honored by the citizens in civil life. He was a man of most exact integrity, and would always do what he believed right, whether others thought as he did or not, and yet he very seldom if ever gave offense; and this writer has never heard a disreputable word spoken of the man or his views. He was for a long time familiarly known as "Uncle Paul," and was revered by old and young and middleaged alike. He was a drafted soldier in the war of 1812, though he had not approved, I believe, of the war.

His health was remarkably firm until his last sickness. On his ninety-fourth birthday, last, October 6th, he rode to Momence, a distance of eight miles, and back to his home.

He was the father of ten children-six still live. There are twenty-seven grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.

His funeral services were held in the Methodist Church at Grant Park. The gathering was very large, many coming a long way to look once more on the features of the old man and show their respect for the man and his well-known and well-proved character.

The pastor, Rev. George K. Hoover, spoke from Isaiah, iii, 10, and was assisted by Rev. Palmer, of the Baptist Church, and Rev. T. C. Hung, of the Methodist Church, who had known him a long time. Asa Griffin, who had known him in New York State, also made some very feeling remarks. He was a man who prospered fairly well in worldly goods, but he was a very charitable man, and no good cause or worthy person appealed to him in vain. Though dead he yet speaketh and will long be remembered, and "the memory of the just is blessed."

The news that Frank Hayden, who lives three-fourths of a mile north of Sherburnville, had hanged himself, reached Grant Park Wednesday morning, and produced a universal feeling of sorrow. No one could assign any reason for his rash act. Mr. Hayden was in Grant Tuesday and paid his taxes to Mr. L. C. Streator, the collector, and although he complained of high taxes there was nothing in what he said or did to lead anyone to believe that his mind was unbalanced.

Found Dead in Barn.

After his usual work, feeding the horses and milking the cows, was comcompleted, he carried the milk to the house, then returned to the barn and hanged himself. As he did not return to the house for so long a time, his wife went in search of him and found him hanging in the barn. Believing there might be some hope of his life, she cut the rope and let him down, but his life had gone out.

The deceased was a son of Andrew Hayden, who died many years ago and his mother became the wife of Volney Dickey. Mr. Hayden was about 54 years old, and leaves a wife and one son. He owned a good farm of 120 acres, and was in comfortable circumstances. His death is regretted by all.

Coroner Fenouille came over from Kankakee, Wednesday, and empaneled a jury and held an inquest.

Funeral will be held at West Creek, at 11:00 a. m. Saturday.

Obituary.

Mrs. Susanna Hayhurst died at the home of her son Jerome Hayhurst in Ganeer township, Feb. 7, 1905, aged 86 years, 5 months and 23 days.

She was the daughter of John and Deltla Perry and was born in Muskingum county, Ohio, August 15, 1818. Her mother died when she was three years old and she was taken by an aunt who moved to Rob Roy, Fountain county, Ind., where she remained until her marriage to Dr. Wm. Hayburst on January 24, 1836. To To this union ten children were born, 7 sons and three daughters. Four of the sons and two daughters survive her. Her second and third sons went through the war of the Rebellion and are dead. The surviving children are John B. Hayhurst (the first white child born in Kankakee county,) of Yellowhead township, Lyman W. Hayhurst of Rocky Bar, Idaho, Jerome Hayhurst of Ganeer township, Edwin L. Hayhurst of Chicago, Nancy E. Lyon of Sherburnville, and Mrs. Clara Jones of Chicago. She also leaves thirty-eight grand children seventytwo great-grand-childen and nine greatgreat-grand children.

Mrs. Hayhurst came to Yellowhead township, Kankakee county, Ili., with her husband in 1836, when this county was new and but few persons were living here, sharing with him the hardships and privations of pioneer life. She has seen this country gradually emerge from a vast, boundless prairie to its present highly developed state. The younger generation will never know the hardships these old settlers passed through to make this country what it is.

Mrs. Hayhurst was a member of the M. E. church of Sherburnville at the time of her death, although for fifty years before uniting with this denomination she was a member of the Christian church. Her husband died January 2, 1891, since which time she made her home with her children. She was a woman of a sympathetic nature, this trait being inculcated into her ze life through her early training and surroundings when this country was new and neighbors far between. She was always ready to lend assistance to those in distress and bereavement. and all who knew her loved and respected her for the kind acts which marked her whole life.

Mrs. Hayhurst's ancestors were of it that old Puritan stock so common h throughout the east in the early days. Her father John Perry, was a first cousin to Commodore Oliver H. Perry, 3 the hero of the naval battle on lake t Erie in 1813, whose famous message, "We have met the enemy and he is ours," will remain as long as the country stands.

The funeral services were held from the M. E. church Priday afternoon at I o'clock, conducted by Rev. Pittenger of this place. The services were attended by a large number of people, despite the cold, most of whom had known Mrs. Hayhurst all their lives.

W. F. Hayhurst Rites Held In Grant Park

Funeral services for William Farrington Hayhurst were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Grant Park Methodist church.

The Reverends Orville Huffman and Glenn Simms officiated and burial was in Union Corners cemetery. The Marshall Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Hayhurst, who died Sunday at his home, was born Oct. 25, 1881, in Momence, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hayhurst. He was married to the former Mary Wilde on Dec. 24, 1902 in Kankakee.

Surviving are the widow; a son, Lester. Sioux Falls, S. D.; daughters, Mrs. Eleanor Grimes, Grant Park; Mrs. Irving DeYoung, Momence; Mrs. Francis Johnson, Grant Park; 12 grandchildren and five great grandchildren, and stepsister, Mrs. Myrtle Bade, Bradley. Four brothers and eight sisters preceded him in death.

Mr. Hayhurst was a retired farmer and was a chief glasser of Yellowhead Arbor for several years. He resided in the Grant Park area most of his life and was a member of the Methodist church.

Geo Daniels, William Edwards, Mr Rowley—the old gentleman, John Vail, William Patterson, Henry Richardson, and John Shed of Sumner.

I will add here that Hardin Beebe father of Orson Beebe died on the river here, Dec 4th, 1839.

Of course the list is incomplete, for it is impossible for me to sit r down and recall all the deaths I could well remember if one would only call over the names. Then, , too, I have not mentioned the soldiers who perished in the war. To name them would require a whole article. I may give the list , some future day.

HAYNES ..

In Goodland, Ind. Aug. 20th, 1881, John Franklin Haynes, aged nine months.

The funeral services were held in the Momence M. E. Church, and little Johnny was tenderly laid to rest by the side of his mother in the Momence Cemetery. It was touching and beautiful to see the little white casket borne into the church by a couple of ladies who were Mrs. Haynes' nearest neighbors while she lived in Momence.

Mr. Haynes has the sympathy of our entire community in his great afflictions.

OBITUARY.

Lucy Irene Haynes, whose maiden name was Spinney, was born in Eastport, Maine, May 10, 1847. In 1865 she went to Connecticut, where she lived a few years and then came to the town of Sumner in this county, where in August, 1868, she was united in marriage to her now bereaved husband, John H. Haynes.

Soon after marriage they came to Momence, where they built a home and have lived until she who made home the dearest place on earth to husband and children, was called to an immortal home among the "many mansions above."

Malignant erysipelas did its work and she died February 9th, 1881. A little daughter nearly two years old had preceded her, and she leaves a daughter of seven and a little son of but two months to find in a loving father and in mother's God, comfort and care.

As a companion Mrs. Haynes was devoted and constant; in her home, careful and faithful; as a mother, most affectionate; as a christian, a worthy example. Her neighbors who knew her best, loved and respected her most.

In the vicissitudes of life she cheerfully bore her full share. A mysterious Providence called her just as a comfortable home had been well secured, and greater ease and usefulness were just in sight.

As might have been expected, death was disarmed, and the messenger was a friend and not a foe. She had grace to commit husband and children to a covenant-keeping God, and left on record the fact that a most glorious welcome to the better land awaited her.

Miss Nancy E. Maddox was born in Owen Co. Ind. near Hall Oct. 19th, 1850, died at her home in Momence, Sunday Sept. 25th, 1904, age 53 years 11 months 6 days. At the age of 24 she was married to Thos. L. Hendrix. To this union 6 children were born 5 of whom are still living and are left to mourn with the father and husband. Although Mrs. Hendrix had been a sufferer some time she bore her suffering with great fortitude and it was only two days previous to her death that she was confined to her room. She seemed to realize at once that she was last sinking and requested that they send for her son Will who was over in Ind. He was immediately sent for but when he arrived she had sank into an unconscious state from which she could not be aroused. The deceased was a member of the Christain Church and had been since childhood and her motto was to "Do unto others as you wish to be done by." She was a kind loving mother and wife and will be greatly missed in the home circle. The Pro-GRESS joins with the many friends in extending eympathy to the family. The words of sweetest meaning

The words of sweetest meaning
To erring mortals given,
Of purest, deepest feeling,
Are Mother, Home, and Heaven!
They come like seraph voices
Upon the list'ning ear,
Like strains of heavenly music
Low sounding from alar.
Mother! there's music in the word,
That thrills through every vein,
And wakes the feelings of the heart
To life and love again.

The thought of heaven steal o'er the soul With mild and soothing sway,
Teaching of life beyond the grave,
And of celestial day,
Of peace to every troubled heart,
Of rest from toil and care;
The Christian's watchword here on earth
His dearest hopes are there.
And when the heart would fain rebel,
The spirit whispers, "all is well,"
Though ties of love on earth are riven,
There's rest for weary ones in Heaven!

And of these words of beauty,
I know not which is best;
They speak of love and happiness,
And one of sacred rest.
I think that Heaven is sweetest,
And yet I cannot tell,
For Mother swells the heart with love,
And Home has charms as well.
Then let the three united be,
Nor should the tie be riven,
For words of holy melody
Are Mother—Home—and Heaven!

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. E. O. HERMAN SATURDAY GREAT SHOCK TO MANY

The sudden and untimely death of Frances M. Herman, Saturday, Sept. 20, came as a great shock to her many friends of this locality and in many cities and communities throughout the United States; her acquaintances reaching into the circles of many prominent personages.

Death came about 1:30 p. m. after she had suffered a serious attack of coronary thrombosis, a form of heart trouble, Friday afternoon. The body was taken to Mt. Hope Crematory in Chicago and the ashes moved to her former home near St. Louis, where memorial rites were held on Tuesday at the Christian church.

To write an obituary for Frances Herman is to write a chapter in the history of Momence, which effected the lives of many. Having come as a young bride in 1922, she made her home here for the past 18 years.

Her sudden departure brings us deep sorrow, but it can truly be said, "The goodness, kindness and services she had shown, will ever live in the hearts and minds of many. She never neglected her duty."

She was born Nov. 19, 1896, in Harrisburg, Mo., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette E. Picket who with her husband survive She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Fern Leonard and Mrs. Hazel Wander, of Webster Grove, Missouri.

She attended elementary schools at Harrisburg, Mo., and received high school and college education at St. Louis.

On March 11, 1921 she was married to E. Olney Herman and it was in the fall of that year they came to Momence, Mr. Hermar being employed by the Tiffany Enamel Brick Co.

Mrs. Herman, always an ardent student and great lover of literature and books served on the Momence Public Library board for several years and received an appointment from the state board to represent Illinois at a nation conference. She and Mr. Herman were members of the National Geographic Society and it was through her that such noted speakers as, Clifton Utley, Allan Villiers, Lorado Taft and Shantz were brought to Momence audiences.

She was elected president of the Momence Woman's Club in 1924 and later served as 18th District president of Woman's Clubs. She was active in the Illinois League of Women Voters, for a number of years, serving as counsurer. It was during her later office the large deficit in the budget was decreased and the organizacions financial status made sound.

It was through the efforts of Mrs. Herman and Mrs. Gertrude Hess that a fine old elm tree on route 114 was not destroyed at the time that highway was built.

During the depression years she devoted many efforts for relief work, served on the advisory board of the C. W. A. and was responsible for Library repair, sewing and wood crafters projects.

Since the formation of the Momence Gladiolus Association she contributed much in many ways, acting on various committees this year being a member of the general Flower Show Committee. She recently compiled a complete satalogue on all manifestation of gladiolus grown in this territory.

Her great authority of birds and wild flowers was an evidence of her love for the world of nature. She was known also for her fine collection of antiques.

She was a member of the Lyric and Travel club of Kanka-kee and the Book Lovers dept. of the Woman's Club and Minne Monesse Golf Club.

With the passing of Mrs. Herman, we have lost a true friend and neighbor and one whose interest in civic affairs will be keenly felt and missed.

by the pastor, Rev. T. U. Demarais, for Raymon Hernandez, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcelino Hernandez, who was killed Saturday morning when he dashed across the highway near Grant Park in front of a car driven by an Oakwood man. Burial was in the Momence Catholic cemetery under direction of the Marshall funeral home of Grant Park.

The accident happened when the boy decided to cross the road to join other children playing in a field about 3½ miles north of Grant Park. The driver of the car, Charles Shepard, 31, hit the brakes hard and skidded the car to the left, hitting the child at the center line of the highway.

The car went into the ditch on the opposite side of the road, and when it came to a stop threw the body of the boy another 15 feet.

Passengers in the Shepard car included his wife and two couples from Tennessee. No one in the car was injured, and the car received only minor damage.

The Hernandez family had come to the Grant Park area from their home in Pharr, Tex., two weeks ago.

The youngster's death is the ninth traffic fatality in Kankakee County this year.

REUBEN HESS ANSWERS THE DIVINE SUMMONS

People throughout Newton county were shocked when the news spread that Reuben Hess had passed away at his late home on Lincoln street in Kentland, Sunday afternoon, Aug. 19. Only close friends knew that he had been seriously ill until the sad announcement was made.

Mr. Hess was born on a farm near Momence, Ill., Aug. 22, 1869, a son of Wm. Henry and Catherine (Ricks) Hess. He grew to manhood in Kankakee County, attending public schools in Momence and vicinity. He later taught school in the neighborhood and in Lake township, Newton county. In the meantime he worked his way through college. He had the distinction of holding three diplomas from the Northern then from the commercial, and lastly from the law course. After completing his law studies in 1901, he located in Morocco, where he began the practice of his profession in partnership with A. E. Chizum. In 1904 he was elected clerk of the Newton County Circuit Court and served two terms. One of the happiest moments of his life occurred while he was serving as clerk, when he issued a license to himself to wed Miss Love Deardurff of Morocco. The wedding took place at the bride's home on Feb. 15, 1905. The happy couple established their residence in Kentland where they have since resided.

After he had served the legal e maximum years as clerk, he was elected treasurer of the town of Kentland, which position he re-J. signed after one year to assume a the duties of prosecuting attorney 1 to which he was elected in 1914. About four years later he was ap-Š. 6 pointed postmaster in Kentland. r He served in this position for more than twelve years, after which he d resumed his law and insurance business which he continued until his death s The name of Reuben Hess has ł thus been identified with the history of Kentland and Newton county for the past 40 years. It has become honored and respected through long years of public service, business integrity, and Ê t moral character. 0 Mr. Hess was an active elder in the First Presbyterian church of ê Kentland. He served his church and Church School in many faithful ways. He was a member of Newton Lodge F. & A. M. No. 361 and also the York Rite Masonic f 1 bodies and the Eastern Star. He b believed in Masonic principles and r practiced them. In politics he a was a loyal Republican but not to the extent of barring those of other political faiths from his circle of friends whom he made and kept throughout the years. He loved his home. It was there where he was supremely happy with his good wife who survives. Rev. Veris B. Servies, pastor of Kentland M. E. church was in charge of funeral rites which were held Wednesday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church. He was assisted by members of the Masonic orders. The body rests in beautiful Fairlawn.—Obituary through the courtesy of W. O. Schanlaub of the Kentland Herald-Enterprize.

BELOVED WOMAN IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Mark Hoag Dies Sunday Morning After Short Illness.

HEART FAILURE THE CAUSE

Funeral Held From the Home on Tuesday and Was Very Largely Attended.

Mrs. Mark Hoag, dled at her home on Range street at about 6 o'clock Sunday morning. This is one of the saddest deaths the Press-Reporter has had to chronicle for some time. No woman in Momence was more beloved, and the news of her untimely death cast a shadow of sorrow over the entire city. Mrs. Hoag was born in this city, in the same house in which she died. Here she spent a childhood and young womanhood, forming friendships which have grown stronger as time passed. Here she attended school and married and established one of the happiest of homes.

Mrs. Hoag was taken with a severe cold some two weeks ago, but her condition was not considered serious until a few days before she passed away, when a weak heart failed to respond to its demands. Everything that medical skill and tender care could do was done. When it became evident that her condition was serious Dr. Tekin, a heart specialist was called from Chicago, but the efforts were in vain. Miss Nellie Wheeler, a trained nurse from Chicago was in the condance, and her tender care did much to nominate her last apprents.

May Irene Grabam was born in Mossence on July 14, 1878, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Graham, She was married to Mark Brug on October 1, 1889, and has lived in this city all her litte.
